

North Fish Hatchery Road Traffic Existing Conditions Summary

Corridor Characteristics:

- Principal Arterial (regional traffic route)
- Reliever for Verona Road
- One of three Beltline Crossings between USH 14 and Verona Road
- Signalized corridor with 4 traffic signals

Traffic Volumes:

- Serves 19,200 to 46,500 vehicles per day (increases from south to north)
- Heavy congestion is present at the north and south ends of the corridor
- The Greenway Cross intersection serves 4,900 vehicles during the afternoon peak hour
- Major infill development is anticipated that will increase traffic volumes along the corridor

Crashes:

- 439 crashes occurred along the corridor in 5 years (2013 – 2017)
- Majority of crashes intersection related
- Highest crash rates at the Greenway Cross and Post Road intersections
- High rate of rear-end crashes at Caddis Bend intersection